

A graphic featuring a globe with circuitry patterns and a curved banner containing the text "SEE. ADAPT. THRIVE." The background is a dark blue with light blue circuitry lines. The globe is in the upper left, and the banner is a white arc curving across the middle.

SEE. ADAPT. THRIVE.

2010 AMT REGIONAL MEETINGS

Welcome

SEE. ADAPT. THRIVE.

Input From You

POLLING
QUESTION

How is your 2010 compared to 2009?

1. 2010 < 2009
2. Same
3. 2010 > 0%
4. 2010 > 20%
5. 2010 > 50%

How AMT Supports You

- Reliable Information Resource
- Industry Advocate
- Market Development Partner
- Business Management Advice and Support
- Networking Facilitator

Key AMT 2009 Accomplishments

AMT Locations Worldwide

More than $55 million in member sales through AMT's international operations

Increased media presence by sending 39 press releases to more than 900 newsmakers

Lobbied hard and won extension of Bonus Depreciation and Section 179

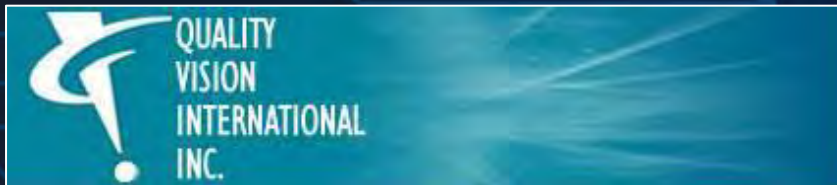

Obtained access for members to meet and testify before representatives of the U.S. Government

Key 2009 AMT Accomplishments

Two new survey programs created:
Vision Systems
Survey and Cutting
Tool Product Group
Survey

$300,000 of custom research offered free to members

Created MTConnect® Institute, which now has 45 member organizations

Today's Agenda

- 8:10 – 8:45      The Manufacturing Mandate
Douglas Woods, President, AMT
- 8:45 – 9:45      2010 Economic Forecast Updates
Rhys Herbert, Oxford Economics
- 9:45 – 10:00     Break
- 10:00 – 10:30    2010 Market Data and Analysis
Patrick McGibbon, VP – Strategic Information & Research, AMT
- 10:30 – 10:50    Global Facilitation Update
Jeff Traver, VP – Business Development, AMT
- 10:50 – 11:15    Business Development Services
J. Traver/D. Woods/P. McGibbon, AMT
- 11:15 – 11:50    IMTS 2010
Peter Eelman, VP – Exhibitions & Communications, AMT
- 11:50 – 12:30    “Additive Manufacturing”
AMT Staff
- 12:30 – 2:00     Lunch/Networking
- 2:00                Adjournment

SEE. ADAPT. THRIVE.

2010 AMT REGIONAL MEETINGS

