

Welcome to AMT's Friends & Family Cookbook!

By purchasing this cookbook, you are supporting the important mission of AMT's MACHINE TOOLPAC – our political action committee that supports members of Congress (and candidates) who work to advocate for the manufacturing industry and its goals.

MACHINE TOOLPAC has pursued many fundraisers over the years, but one thing that we never tried was putting together a cookbook with favorite recipes from our members, staff and friends. But as you'll see by glancing through the pages inside, this is a resource we should have tapped long ago. Who knew that we had such culinary talent lurking among the ranks of our members, staff, and their families and friends!

We've tried to include a little something for everyone, from scrumptious appetizers all the way to decadent desserts. We hope you'll find some new favorites that will have you reaching for this cookbook time and time again!

We also want to thank all those who took the time to contribute to this book – and an extra big thank you to you for purchasing it!

Bon appétit!
